Alexander T. Mitchel focuses his practice on the appeal of real property tax assessments of office, multifamily, hotel, and retail properties in the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Virginia. Mr. Mitchel began his career in property tax appeals in 2014 and has devoted his practice to this work ever since, quickly developing a deep body of knowledge and experience in this specialized area of the law. Mr. Mitchel represents clients throughout the administrative appeals processes and in litigation in D.C., Maryland, and Virginia, handling hundreds of appeals each year on behalf of many of the region's largest property owners.

Mr. Mitchel received a Bachelor of Arts degree from McGill University. He received his law degree with honors from the University of Maryland Carey School of Law, where he served as Editor-in-Chief of the Maryland Law Journal of Race, Religion, Gender & Class. Mr. Mitchel is a member of the National Association of Property Tax Attorneys and the Apartment and Office Building Association of Metropolitan Washington.
